U. Short answer questions

The short answer questions are an essential part of the selection process. Please structure your response using paragraphs and limit your response to 150-250 words.

1. What is one initiative that you would like to start at your local neighborhood or community level? What support will you need and who can you enlist to help you? How would you measure success of your initiative?
2. What is one initiative you would like to see started at the regional/provincial or national level in Pakistan? What different people or groups need to participate to make an effective regional/provincial or national program?

3. A famous phrase in U.S. politics is "all politics are local." What do you think this means and do you think the same applies in Pakistan?
4. Discuss one mistake you committed. How did you overcome it and what did you learn from it?
